

I want to thank each Member of the Virginia delegation as they joined with me to introduce this bill. I also want to thank the gentleman from New York (Mr. TOWNS) and the gentleman from California (Mr. ISSA) for working with me to bring this legislation to the floor for consideration.

Naming the Centreville, Virginia, post office facility after Colonel George Juskalian will be a fitting tribute to his many, many years of service, and will also serve as a constant reminder of the sacrifices made by members of the United States Armed Services.

I urge a "yes" vote.

I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. CLAY. Madam Speaker, I urge my colleagues to support this legislation.

I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Missouri (Mr. CLAY) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 6392.

The question was taken; and (two-thirds being in the affirmative) the rules were suspended and the bill was passed.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

PROCESS IN THE HOUSE

Mr. BUYER. Madam Speaker, since this bill has not gone through the committee, I think we ought to just go through regular order and go to the next bill. As a matter of fact, we'll shut the book on this, Madam Speaker. What do you think?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman will suspend.

Mr. BUYER. Suspend? I ask to be recognized.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman has not been recognized.

Mr. BUYER. I ask to be recognized. I ask unanimous consent to address the House for 1 minute.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. For what purpose does the gentleman seek recognition?

Mr. BUYER. I ask unanimous consent to address the House for 5 minutes.

Hearing no objection—

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Five-minute special orders are not being recognized at this time.

Mr. BUYER. I ask unanimous consent to address the House for 1 minute.

Hearing no objection—

The SPEAKER pro tempore. One-minute requests are not being entertained at this time.

Mr. BUYER. Oh. So as a sitting Member of the House, the Speaker chooses not to recognize another sitting Member. Is that correct?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Recognition is within the discretion of the Speaker.

Mr. BUYER. So the discretion of the Speaker here is not to recognize a ranking Republican member on a bill that is about to be heard that was never gone through the process of the committee.

I ask to be recognized.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The House is proceeding with motions to suspend the rules.

Mr. BUYER. And if the chairman is not here to present the bill, shouldn't we go to the next bill, and we would therefore withdraw this bill?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman will suspend. The gentleman has not been recognized.

Mr. BUYER. I ask to be recognized. I ask unanimous consent to address the House for 1 minute.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there an objection for the gentleman to speak for 1 minute? Hearing none, the gentleman is recognized for 1 minute.

Mr. BUYER. Wow. Was treating another Member with dignity so hard, Madam Speaker? I don't believe it was. You see, you are right. It is within your sole discretion to recognize a Member. But you chose to exercise the power of the gavel, Madam Speaker. Therein lies the problem.

I am here. The chairman is not here. He wants a bill brought under suspension that was not gone through regular order of the committee over the objections of the ranking Republican. That is an abuse of the process. As a matter of fact, he wants to bring a bill under suspension and then do this sort of political treachery of doing a manager's amendment, and I object to it all. And he is not even here to do it.

So what I am asking is, Madam Speaker, for regular order. If he is not here to pull off this political stunt, then we should just proceed and this bill should be withdrawn. It is the right thing to do by the American people to stop these tactics.

I yield back the balance of my time.
